

Conceptualizing and Measuring Occupation-Based Practice

Wendy B. Stav, PhD, OTR/L, FAOTA

This session presents the newly developed Dynamic Model of Occupation-Based Practice, which depicts the four main constructs of occupation-based practice as well as factors influencing the use of occupation in practice. An associated assessment tool measuring the occupational focus of clinical practice will also be explained with an opportunity for application to clinical scenarios and reflection on participants' clinical practice.